ENFORCE CITY LAW IS DEMAND.

KEEP TO THE RIGHT SIDE THE RULE FOR VEHICLES.

MEMBER OF CITY COUNCIL PROPOSES TO SEE THAT CITY ORDINANCE IS ENFORCED TO PREVENT ACCIDENTS.

"The ordinance regulating traffic on the streets of Daytona is a good one, and should be enforced," says Alderman E. T. Conrad. "This ordinance was considered a good one when it was brought up and discussed in the council chamber, and it was passed with the expectation that it would be enforced. There is no reason why this ordinance should not be enforced and I propose to see that Marshal Gore is instructed to enforce this city law the same as the rest. Some day there will be a bad accident resulting from the disregard of this rule and the driver of the vehicle headed in the wrong direction will be liable for the accident."

While delivering himself of this declaration and opinion Alderman Conrad pointed out six vehicles on Beach street headed up to the curb in the wrong direction.

The Daily News has called attention to this violation of the city ordinance a number of times and the time has arrived when patience ceases to be a virtue. There is absolutely no reason why the law requiring all vehicles to keep to the right side of the street should not be enforced and it is the duty of the mayor to see that it is enforced. The law was passed for protection to vehicles and passengers, as well as pedestrians, on the streets and the people have a right to expect these laws will be enforced by the persons whom they elect and pay to perform these duties.

TO REPEAT PASSION PLAY PICTURES AT THE THEATRE.

The lecture by Mr. Clark added so much to the pictures that to one who has never heard his clear and graphic descriptions, they appear like an entirely new production, but as he gives his rapid word pictures each [illegible] seems to be endowed with a new life and [illegible] possible.

A Bank Draft.

There are so many ways in which you may use a bank to advantage. Many do not understand that a bank draft is the easiest, safest, cheapest and quickest way to send money by mail, but such is the case. Very seldom is the fee more than ten cents. You do not have to be annoyed by making out a formal application, as is the case where you buy a post office money order, and if the draft is lost in the mail the bank issues another one. The next time you have any money you wish to send away come in and buy a bank draft and we are sure after that you will use no other medium. By making the draft payable to you, and then endorsing it on the back to the one to whom you send it, it provides a complete record of the transaction, and is a receipt to you from the person to whom you send the money, as they also must endorse it before it is payable. This is only one of the many conveniences offered you by the bank, and we shall be pleased to have you make use of them all.

LONG DRAWN OUT CASE OF HAMMOND VS. CONSOLIDATED GROCERY COMPANY ENDS AT JACKSONVILLE.

JACKSONVILLE, Jan. 28 — "Guilty." was the verdict of the jury in the United States Court in the case of John T. Hammond vs. the Consolidated Grocery company and other members of the Southern Wholesale Grocers' Association, damages for the plaintiff being assessed in the sum of $1. Attorney J. H. Jones, of counsel for the plaintiff, immediately gave notice to the court that he would move for a new trial.

The case has been on trial for 24 days and the jury was out 56 1-4 hours, a sealed verdict being returned.

The suit was originally filed Sept. 12, 1905, and tried before Judge J. W. Locke January 6, 1909. After a period of 18 days had been consumed in the taking of testimony, the jury found a verdict for the plaintiff in the sum of $25,000. Judgment in the case was entered February 15, 1909.

After the verdict had been rendered, the case was taken upon appeal to the United States Court of Appeals, sitting in New Orleans, and the judgment of the lower court was reversed.

In taking the appeal, attorneys for the defendant corporation alleged that an error had been made in the admission of testimony, special emphasis being placed on the fact that a letter, bearing the signature in rubber stamp of St. Elmo W. Acosta, of Jacksonville, was not proven to have been appended thereto at his instigation.

Hammond has gone out of the grocery business since the suit was first filed and is now president of the State Bank at New Smyrna, Fla.

By L. C. DEMAREE.

One of Daytona's crowning glories is her incomparable beach. No one who has ever set foot upon its smooth, packed sands; no one who ever pedaled a bicycle over its expanse; no one who ever drove a prancing pair of horses and listened to the popping of their steel shoes upon its asphaltum-like face; no one who ever steered a high-power automobile down the broad stretch of wave-washed and surf-packed sand but realized that it is a world beater, a world-wonder. Go stand upon this wide speedway and see the happy souls flit by in joyous mood, and answer whether this is not one of the seven modern wonders.

The Placid, Pellucid Halifax River.

Where think you is water with more picturesque surroundings? Nearly a mile wide, fringed with tropical vegetation, artistic cottages with roomy verandas looking out upon her bosom, gamey food fishes in countless numbers beckoning, as it were, to those with rod and reel; her bosom flecked with dark and coot and snowy-winged sea birds, which sit about as if for the sport of bobbing upon the waves; watch that lubberly old white headed pelican pouch a fat mullet, and that fish hawk struggling upward with his floundering food he snatched from the water.

See the beautiful launches, spick and span, with hampers and baskets bulging with refreshments, both solid and liquid, ready for a cruise upon the beautiful surface. Take out your field glass and sweep the river from Ormond bridge to Ponce Park light house, then say whether the Halifax isn't a thing of beauty and a joy forever, and one of the modern wonders.

The Enchantingly Picturesque Ridgewood.

Ridgewood avenue is upon the crest of a broad ridge, straight as the crow flies and the wide spreading branches of the heavy-trunked live oaks extend their giant arms across the magnificent vista, forming an arch, and from these extended arms great festoons of Spanish moss sway as the trade winds from the tropic seas fan them. Looking straight ahead down this white shell street one has the impression of a fairy path with Wren draperies, but as you move along and cast an eye first to the right and then to the left you see distinguished cottage homes in the most delightful settings.

See the glistening leaf of the grand magnolia which nature has varnished as no artist's brush ever could; and the cabbage palms with their burdens of showy fruit and swaying palms; see the lovely holly with its exquisite fairy; see the climbing vines run riot in the trees; see the cypresses forms which gain a foothold on the great oaks and shady palms, and surely you will join in the chorus and say that this is a world wonder for beauty.

Surpassing Beauty of Our Cottage Homes.

No one of Daytona's attractions, perhaps, commands more nearly universal attention and praise than does the artistic cottages. The owners of these charming villas hail from every corner of the country and they bring their own architectural plans and build upon them, and, as the architecture of one section of the country differs from the architecture of another so do our homes differ in outward appearance and structural beauty from one another. There are no monotonous rows of strikingly similar buildings but the eye, as it sweeps by, is treated to a kaleidoscopic change which keeps the mind wondering, "What next?"

It is not only the exterior of many of these homes which invite attention; within they are models of convenience, and the finishing and furnishing give evidence of the elegance and cultivation of those who worked it all out. Indeed, it is the interior arrangement and artistic furnishing and shading, more than the exterior appearance that gives a surpassing charm to Daytona homes. This feature justly merits prominence as another wonder.

Streets and Pavements the Most and Best.

Why the Architect of the Universe chose to give Daytona the most admirable, the most picturesque natural setting of all the cities of the South is not revealed, but that such is a fact must be apparent to the most superficial observer. With such lavish wealth of natural beauty it became an easy thing for the hand of man to give the finishing touches which have wrought out the colors and outlines of the big picture.

Man did all this in the laying out of the streets with their wide margins of parkage. The entire city becomes a great park, with driveways intersecting, miles upon miles of driveways so good as to attract motorists from all over the continent.

And as for the pavements, pavements that look and act like granite—where else between the eastern and western seas are so many miles in proportion to inhabitants? The pavement question stands with the street as one of the chief drawing cards. Till some unheard of place reports more and better, Daytona throws down the gauntlet to the world.

Squirrels, Flowers, Birds and Fruit.

Whatever one's shortcomings and however indifferent or even callous one may be to many things, the mere mention of "flowers and squirrels, birds and fruits" will send a thrill that is reflected in distended pupils and pricked ears.

For every visitor with a spare quarter there is a bunny ready to come and accept your gift. He will sit bolt upright and know into the meat, casting furtive, sawy glances at you meanwhile.

Flowers. Usually fresh and blooming the year 'round, you are reminded of Goldsmith's couplet where

> smiling spring its earliest visit paid
> And summer's lingering blooms are delayed.

In one yard roses of variegated hues predominate; another household has a penchant for the poinsettia and the premises are aflame; another is hidden in a jungle of tall cane. Variety is the spice of life and here is where you find it.

The birds fit in, and with their joyous notes help to give fullness and symmetry to the picture.

As for fruits, choice citrus fruits, Daytona yields the palm to none for quality and quantity per acre. There are scores of citrus groves in proximity to the city, branches bending to the earth with their burdens of luscious golden globes, which for beauty, proficiency and all desirable qualities would truly astonish you.

The Fastest Autos and The Finest Out.

The seventh world wonder, do you ask? Come, whether from Missouri or from Maine, from Kalamazoo or Timbuctu, and you will be "shown." Here is where the world's record for speed is broken with every recurring season. Autos, the biggest, the fastest, and the finest are on daily parade and the big show is as free as the pure artesian water from the thousands of flowing wells. It is a continuous show with a constantly shifting scene.

Everything goes, from a 2-horse power up to a 200-horse power, and all degrees of speed from a canter to a two-mile-a-minute clip. You will probably catch the spirit, when you see the roads and the beach are yours. The Florida sunshine is free, the balmy ocean breezes are free, the birds and squirrels and flowers are free, the sparkling fountain water is free and you will have to go down into your wallet only for coin for auto, and bed and board.

This is no fanciful picture. It's all here. It is drawing other thousands and holding them enthralled, it will charm and hold you. Come and see.

PICTURESQUE PORT ORANGE

PORT ORANGE is a pretty little village situated five miles south of Daytona on the Daytona-New Smyrna hard-surface road, the scenic highway of the East Coast. The town is located on the Halifax River, and is connected with the peninsula opposite by a bridge.

The town is well laid out and has many pretty homes. A large number of tourists and winter residents make Port Orange winter headquarters, one of the several attractions being the excellent fishing.

A short distance west of Port Orange are the remains of the old Dunlawton sugar mill, a place that is visited every year by hundreds of tourists. One time all the country west of Port Orange, surrounding the old mill, was a vast indigo and sugar cane plantation. The mill was operated extensively in those early days but has been in disuse for forty or fifty years.

A very interesting drive from Daytona is by auto beach to the approach of the Port Orange bridge, across the bridge and then passing through the principal street of Port Orange to the ruins of the historical old sugar mill, returning to Daytona by the road on the mainland.

DeLAND, THE ATHENS OF FLORIDA

DeLAND, the county seat of Volusia County, is situated 23 miles southwest of Daytona and is reached from the latter city by an excellent hard-surface road recently constructed.

At DeLand is located the John B. Stetson University, one of the leading educational institutions of the South. Because of the interest in matters educational DeLand is known as "The Athens of Florida."

Stetson University has a faculty of 50 professors and instructors. There are over $600,000 in buildings and equipment; nearly $300,000 endowment; a Carnegie Library alone representing an investment in building, endowment and books, of more than $130,000. The library is the United States Government depository for the State of Florida, and contains over 15,000 volumes. Science Hall, one of the newest of 16 buildings, with its furnishings, represents an outlay of $60,000. Elizabeth Hall is one of the most beautiful college buildings in the South.

The city has a population of about 3,500, with a thickly settled country adjacent. DeLand proper is five miles east of the St. Johns River, on the high, rolling pine land of the great "Orange Ridge" of Florida.

The predominating products are oranges and grapefruit, the estimated crop from this vicinity being over 300,000 boxes this year. Grapes, peaches, pears, Japan persimmons, plums, pecans, guavas, strawberries and other fruits are grown in plenty.

In the way of public improvements are many miles of fine shell roads, an excellent high school, electric lights, a system of waterworks that is owned and operated by the city, supplying the purest water at little cost.

Nine houses of worship testify that DeLand is a church-going community. Baptists, Episcopalians, Methodists (Northern and Southern), Presbyterians, Christians and Catholics, besides colored Baptists and Methodists, are represented.

The graded school offers a ten years' course, and the building which it occupies is newly furnished throughout, and is one of the most commodious and best equipped public schools in the State.

The trip from Daytona to DeLand is made by automobile in a little over an hour, and there are many pretty drives in the vicinity of the county site. A good road leads to DeLeon Springs, five miles, a historic spot, where 60,000 gallons of water bubble from the earth every minute.

From DeLand automobiles go south to Osteen, 18 miles, on shell and marl roads; the St. Johns is crossed by ferry near Osteen and cars can then continue to Sanford and Orlando by hard road. There is a shell road from DeLand to Orange City, five miles, and a good road from DeLand to Lake Helen, a like distance.

LAKE HELEN

Surrounded by several pretty lakes and guarded by lofty pine trees is Lake Helen, a winter resort of no little importance. Camp Cassadaga, a spiritualistic camp-ground is situated near Lake Helen and at this place several hundred people make winter headquarters. A large lumber mill and the largest brick plant in the South are located at Lake Helen.

ORANGE CITY

The principal attraction around Orange City is the many handsome golden orange groves. The town is supplied with water said to be the purest in the world, another attraction to visitors. It is at Orange City that passengers over the Florida East Coast Ry. transfer to carriages and drive to DeLand. The town is surrounded by land peculiarly adapted to the cultivation of citrus fruits.

By L. C. DEMAREE.

One of Daytona's crowning glories is her incomparable beach. No one who has ever set foot upon its smooth, packed sands; no one who ever pedaled a bicycle over its expanse; no one who ever drove a prancing pair of horses and listened to the popping of their steel shoes upon its asphaltum-like face; no one who ever steered a high-power automobile down the broad stretch of wave-washed and surf-packed sand but realized that it is a world beater, a world-wonder. Go stand upon this wide speedway and see the happy souls flit by in joyous mood, and answer whether this is not one of the seven modern wonders.

The Placid, Pellucid Halifax River.

Where think you is water with more picturesque surroundings? Nearly a mile wide, fringed with tropical vegetation, artistic cottages with roomy verandas looking out upon her bosom gamey food fishes in countless numbers beckoning, as it were, to those with rod and reel; her bosom flecked with duck and coot and snowy-winged sea birds, which sit about as if for the sport of bobbing upon the waves; watch that lubberly old white headed pelican pouch a fat mullet, and that fish hawk struggling upward with his floundering load he snatched from the water.

See the beautiful launches, spick and span, with hampers and lockers bulging with refreshments, both solid and liquid, ready for a cruise upon th beautiful surface. Take out your field glass and sweep the river from Ormond bridge to Ponce Park light house, then say whether the Halifax isn't a thing of beauty and a joy forever, and one of the modern wonders.

The Enchantingly Picturesque Ridgewood.

Ridgewood avenue is upon the crest of a broad ridge, straight as the crow flies and the wide spreading branches of the heavy-trunked live oaks extend their giant arms across the magnificent vista, forming an arch, and from these extended arms great festoons of Spanish moss sway as the trade winds from the tropic seas fan them. Looking straight ahead down this white shell street one has the impression of a fairy path with silken draperies, but as you move along and cast an eye first to the right and then to the left you see distinguished cottage homes in the most delightful settings.

See the glistening leaf of the grand magnolia which nature has varnished as no artist's brush ever could; and the cabbage palms with their burdens of showy fruit and swaying palms; see the lovely holly with its exquisite berry; see the climbing vines run riot in the trees; see the cryptogamous forms which gain a foothold on the great oaks and stately palms, and surely you will join in the chorus and say that this is a world wonder for beauty.

Surpassing Beauty of Our Cottage Homes.

No one of Daytona's attractions, perhaps, commands more nearly universal attention and praise than does the artistic cottages. The owners of these charming villas hail from every corner of the country and they bring their own architectural plans and build upon them, and, as the architecture of one section of the country differs from the architecture of another so do our homes differ in outward appearance and structural beauty from one another. There are no monotonous rows of strikingly similar buildings but the eye, as it sweeps by, is treated to a kaleidoscopic change which keeps the mind wondering, "What next?"

It is not only the exterior of many of these homes which rivets attention; within they are models of convenience, and the finishing and furnishing give evidence of the elegance and cultivation of those who worked it all out. Indeed, it is the interior arrangement and artistic furnishing and shading, more than the exterior appearance that gives a surpassing charm to Daytona homes. This feature justly merits prominence as another wonder.

Streets and Pavements the Most and Best.

Why the Architect of the Universe chose to give Daytona the most admirable, the most picturesque natural setting of all the cities of the South is not revealed, but that such is a fact must be apparent to the most superficial observer. With such lavish wealth of natural beauty it became an easy thing for the hand of man to give the finishing touches which have wrought out the colors and outlines of the big picture.

The pavement question stands with the street as one of the chief drawing cards. Till some unheard of place reports more and better, Daytona throws down the gauntlet to the world.

Squirrels, Flowers, Birds and Fruit.

Whatever one's shortcomings and however indifferent or even callous one may be to many things, the mere mention of "flowers and squirrels, birds and fruits" will send a thrill that is reflected in distended pupils and pricked ears.

For every visitor with a spare goober there is a bunny ready to come and accept your gift. He will sit bolt upright and knaw into the meat, casting furtive, saucy glances at you meanwhile

Flowers. Usually fresh and blooming the year 'round, you are reminded of Goldsmith's couplet where

Smiling spring its earliest visit paid
And summer's lingering blossoms are delayed.

In one yard roses of varigated hues predominate; another household has a penchant for the poinsetta and the premises are aflame; another is hidden in a jungle of tall cane. Variety is the spice of life and here is where you find it.

The birds flit in, and with their joyous notes help to give fullness and symmetry to the picture.

As for fruits, choice citrus fruits, Daytona yields the palm to none for quality and quantity per acre. There are scores of citrus groves in proximity to the city, branches bending to the earth with their burdens of lucious golden globes, which for beauty, proficacy and all desirable qualities would truly astonish you.

The Florida sunshine is free, the balmy ocean breezes are free, the birds and squirrels and flowers are free, the sparkling fountain water is free and you will have to go down into your wallet only for coin for auto, and bed and board.

Davis Elkins Succeeds Father And Is Senator For Few Days

Copyright by American Press Association.

DAVIS ELKINS, the son of the late Senator Stephen B. Elkins, has the unique distinction of having been appointed to fill the vacancy in the United States senate caused by the death of his father. Young Mr. Elkins is but thirty-five years old, but he has for many years been the practical manager of his father's vast enterprises and he is a good business man. It is thought that his appointment to an office which he could fill but a few days was for the purpose of giving him prestige that would aid him in making a canvass for the senatorship in 1912. When Dave Elkins as he is called by his intimates, was named by Governor Glasscock for the place made vacant by his father's death the commission was hurried to Washington so that he could take his seat at once, as the legislature was soon to convene to elect the man who will finish Senator S. B. Elkins' unexpired term.

England's "Reginides"

"Regi-cides" in English history are the commissioners appointed to try King Charles I., 150 in number, of whom seventy acted and fifty-nine signed the death warrant January, 1649. Of these but twenty-nine were tried and ten executed.

Wrestling in Vienna.

Wrestling is almost a national sport in Vienna, and royalty attends the bouts on the mat.

Putting It Off.

Tess—He proposed to me today, and he was so impatient! He wanted me to marry him right away. But I was not to be hurried.

Jess—So you put him off, eh?

Tess—Yes, indeed. I told him he'd have to wait until tomorrow.

Sanskrit.

Sanskrit, the language of the Brahmans of India, is at least as ancient as the time of Solomon.

Atlas and His Load.

Strictly speaking, "atlas" is a misnomer for a map book, since it was not the world, but the heavens, that the "atlas" of mythology upheld. Mercator, the famous Dutch geographer, who made globes for Emperor Charles V. of Germany, was the first to use the name in this connection, choosing it as a convenient and in some sort an appropriate title, because Atlas, the demigod, figures with a world upon his shoulders as a frontispiece of some early works on geography.

Atlas, it will be recalled, made war with other Titans upon Zeus and, being conquered, was condemned to bear heaven upon his head and hands. Later tradition represented him as a man changed by means of Medusa's head into a mountain, upon which rested heaven and all its stars.

In any case, Atlas was always associated with a heavy burden strongly borne. Thus Shakespeare makes Warwick say to Gloucester:

Thou art no Atlas for so great a weight.

It is not difficult to see how by an association of ideas this came to be chosen as the name for a book of maps which upholds and exhibits to us the whole world.

A Plea For Rubbernecks.

Be good to the rubbernecks. They are the people who find time to attend the weddings and who make the public opinion that decides if the bride looked pretty or was a fright. They also attend the funerals, and it is through them that lony people learn if the corpse looked natural and if the relatives were so grief stricken as they should have been. They decide if a woman's new dress is becoming, if a gift makes a good match, if a new lady is pretty. They make the world-wised that is favorable or opposed to a girl's singing, her piano playing or her recitations in public. They are the opinion makers. Be good to them.—Atchison Globe.

Tulips.

Tulips come from the Levant. They grew wild in European Turkey. Lady Holland gave them to England in 1904.

NEW SMYRNA FLORIDA

NEW SMYRNA is situated fifteen miles south of Daytona and is an ideal spot reached from Daytona by a hard surface road winding through one of the most picturesque parts of Florida.

With its ancient ruins dating back to a time when the history of man reaseth not, interlaced with wires of the modern telegraph and telephone, its miles of shell streets as hard and smooth as a floor and overarched by heavy forest giants that grow in stately grandeur during the lapse of bygone centuries, New Smyrna is truly a place of romance and rest.

All nature here is very inviting to the tourist and pleasure-seeker. Here too is to be found the best fishing and boating in the state of Florida.

The people are thrifty, the business men enterprising, and all unite in extending the welcome hand of hospitality to strangers. There are five church edifices for white people and an equal number for the colored population; the town has an excellent high school a splendid public library, and up-to-date business houses.

There are any number of pretty homes for the permanent population, which numbers close to 2,000, and some very fine winter residences. There are good hotels and boarding houses where you can find accommodations to meet your requirements.

Adjoining New Smyrna is as fine a section of vegetable land as can be found anywhere. This land has been divided into small farms which can be bought at reasonable prices. Some of the finest celery grown in the state is raised on this land. All other vegetables grow in abundance, and here, too, is the home of the famous Indian River oranges.

INCREASE OF BUSINESS OVER LAST SEASON.

The idea seems to prevail with some people that the tourist travel is not so heavy this season as usual and because some of the larger hotels are not yet overflowing they imagine there are not as many visitors in Daytona as last winter, when quite the contrary is the case. Most of the smaller hotels have been full for several weeks and the larger hotels do not expect to be crowded until after the through trains are put on and the travel is now coming very satisfactorily, although the onlooker at the depot might be misled from the fact that the arrivals formerly confined to two trains are now distributed among half a dozen. In proof of the heavier arrivals it may be stated that both G. A. Fore and James Nix, who conduct hack lines to the railroad depot, state that their receipts are far in excess of the same period last season. Also, there is no question but that there are many more cottages occupied than for several past winters.

WHAT GOOD BUTTER DOES.

Jacksonville, Fla., Jan. 21, 1911.
Mr. H. S. Miller, Daytona, Fla.
Dear sir:—A few weeks ago, we mailed out circulars in regard to "Better, More Butter and Better Butter," all of it meaning "Meadow Gold" Butter. We regret to advise that we are now entirely out of butter, although we expect to have more of this butter before in time to make morning.

To tell the truth, Mr. Miller, "Meadow Gold" Butter has so taken the trade by storm that, notwithstanding our increased orders to the creamery, we are unable to supply the demand. Instead of having weekly shipments, we are now placing orders for a shipment every three days and, if necessary, we will order a carload every day, so, send along your orders.

The Shadows.

Were a man's sorrows and disquietudes summed up at the end of his life it would generally be found that he had suffered more from the apprehension of such evils as never happened to him than from those evils which had really befallen him.

A WEEK OF GAIETY AT THE HOWARD HOTEL.

TUESDAY, THURSDAY AND FRIDAY EVENINGS DEVOTED TO PLEASANT ENTERTAINMENTS FOR THE GUESTS.

Tuesday night a guessing party at the Howard contributed to the enjoyment of the guests of that pleasant hostelry. Thursday night they were entertained with a delightful musicale and last night was devoted to cards.

At the first table, where the game was six-hand euchre, Wm. Conklin was obliged to cut with Messrs. F. T. Stevens and George Moody for the prize.

Five Hundred was played at the second table and here Miss Blood and Mr. Boughton were the successful players.

At the third a bridge table, the prizes were won by Mrs. B. F. Beale and A. P. Clark.

The fifth table, also of Five Hundred, had for its most successful players, Mrs. C. W. Hammond and Miss F. J. Hutchins. Two other tables did not finish the game.

Before commencing the card game a guessing contest was indulged in, the first prize being won by Mrs. George Moody and the second by A. P. Clark.

The Animals in Heaven.

According to the Mohammedan's belief, there are ten animals in heaven. These form the following strange menagerie: The calf offered by Abraham, the ox of Moses, the whale of Jonah, the ass of Balaam, the ram of Ishmael, the ant of Solomon, the camel of the prophet Saleh, the cuckoo of Balkis, the dog of the seven sleepers and Al Borak, the animal which carried Mohammed to heaven.

INCREASE OF BUSINESS OVER LAST SEASON.

The idea seems to prevail with some people that the tourist travel is not so heavy this season as usual and because some of the larger hotels ore not yet overflowing they imagine there are not so many visitors in Daytona as last winter, when quite the contrary is the case. Most of the smaller hotels have been full for several weeks and the larger hotels do not expect to be crowded until after the through trains are put on and the travel is now coming very satisfactorily, although the onlooker at the depot might be misled from the fact that the arrivals formerly confined to two trains are now distributed among half a dozen. In proof of the heavier arrivals it may be stated that both G. A. Foye and James Rix, who conduct hack lines to the railroad depot, state that their receipts are far in excess of the same period last season. Also, there is no question but that there are many more cottages occupied than for several past winters.

WHAT GOOD BUTTER DOES.

Jacksonville, Fla., Jan. 27, 1911.

Mr. H. S. Miller, Daytona, Fla., Dear sir:—A few weeks ago, we mailed out circulars in regard to "Butter, More Butter and Better Butter," all of it meaning "Meadow Gold" Butter. We regret to advise that we are now entirely out of butter, although we expect to have more of this better butter in time to make morning.

To tell the truth, Mr. Miller, "Meadow Gold" Butter has so taken the trade by storm that, notwithstanding our increased orders to the creamery, we are unable to supply the demand. Instead of having weekly shipments, we are now placing orders for a shipment every three days and, if necessary, we will order a carload every day, so, send along your orders.

The Shadows.

Were a man's sorrows and disquietudes summed up at the end of his life it would generally be found that he had suffered more from the apprehension of such evils as never happened to him than from those evils which had really befallen him.

A WEEK OF GAIETY AT THE HOWARD HOTEL.

TUESDAY, THURSDAY AND FRIDAY EVENINGS DEVOTED TO PLEASANT ENTERTAINMENTS FOR THE GUESTS.

Tuesday night a guessing party at the Howard contributed to the enjoyment of the guests of that pleasant hostelry. Thursday night they were entertained with a delightful musicale and last night was devoted to cards.

At the first table, where the game was six-hand euchre, Wm. Conklin was obliged to cut with Messrs. P. T. Stevents and George Moody for the prize.

Five Hundred was playted at the second table and here Miss Blood and Mr. Boughton were the successful players.

At the third a bridge table, the prizes were won by Mrs. B. F. Sauls and A. P. Clark.

Number four table, Five Hundred being the game gave for its prize winners Miss Grace Conaway and Wm. Sessions.

The fifth table, also of Five Hundred, had for its most successful players, Mrs. C. W. Hammond and Miss F. J. Hutchins. Two other tables did not finish the game.

Before commencing the card games a guessing contest was indulged in, the first prize being won by Mrs. George Moody and the second by A. P. Clark.

The Animals In Heaven.

According to the Mohammedan's belief, there are ten animals in heaven. These form the following strange menagerie: The calf offered by Abraham, the ox of Moses, the whale of Jonah, the ass of Balaam, the ram of Ishmael, the ant of Solomon, the camel of the prophet Saleeh, the cuckoo of Balkis, the dog of the seven sleepers and Al Borak, the animal which carried Mohammed to heaven.

Can You Sew all day without fatigue? Foolish question, isn't it? No it's not, for it means, do you or do you not use a Westinghouse Sewing Machine Motor?

With it, you cannot only sew all day without fatigue, but you can sew a great deal more than you can by pedaling. What do you suppose the absence of fatigue costs in the current taken by the motor? Only a half a cent an hour.

March of Progress.

"We are thinking of putting an electric sign over the church."

"It might be a good idea."

"But there are factions. We can't decide whether to feature the minister or the soprano of the choir."—Pittsburg Post.

Fifty Years Ago Sunday, Jan. 29.

John A. Dix, secretary of the United States treasury, sent to a subordinate in New Orleans the famous order, "If any man attempts to haul down the American flag shoot him on the spot." The dispatch fell into the hands of southerners, but was duly delivered.

Twenty-five Years Ago Sunday

Queen Victoria very reluctantly accepted the resignation of the Salisbury cabinet and summoned Mr. Gladstone for consultation about a new cabinet.

AN ANCIENT CUSTOM.

Wassailing of Apple Trees Still Observed in Parts of England.

What is the wassailing of apple trees?

This is an old custom, fast dying out, but still observed in parts of Somerset and Devon. At Wootton-Basset, near Minehead, the ceremony takes place on old Twelfth eve. All assemble at the farmhouse and after a hearty meal form a procession to the nearest orchard, the master in front with a light and men with old guns, blunderbusses and anything that makes a noise in the rear. Plenty of cider is taken and some pieces of toast.

When the orchard is reached a ring is formed, and the master, in the center, seizes a branch and sings a verse beginning "Oh, apple tree, I wassail thee, in hopes that thou wilt blow." Then all shout in chorus:

Hatfuls, capfuls, three bushel bagfuls,
Barn floorfuls, toilet holefuls
And a little heap under the stairs.

Then follow cheers, drinking of healths, shouts of "Now, Tom Pod, we wassail thee!" and the placing of the pieces of toast, soaked in cider, among the branches for the robins.—London Answers.

The Porcupine.

Mother Nature surely must have set out to make "something different" the day she invented the porcupine. Here was an animal with a pathetically mild disposition, without cunning or courage and almost as slow and clumsy as a turtle. It would have been absurd to give him weapons of defense; he would never have the energy to attack anything, so he was given a coat of mail in which he might walk abroad among his enemies and yet be as safe as though he were behind a wall of steel. His upper parts, from his nose to the tip of his thick, muscular tail, are covered with a mass of sharp pointed quills intermixed with coarse hair. Each quill is provided with a number of minute barbs pointing backward, so that when it is once inserted in the flesh of any animal the mere movement of the muscles will cause it to work deeper and deeper.—Suburban Life.

Her Artistic Instinct.

The girl was a dainty thing in pink, evidently a stranger in Boston. The fellow had Harvard written all over him. They were standing in the delivery room of the public library, and he was explaining to her the decorations by Edwin Abbey which illustrate the legend of the Holy Grail. As he talked he glanced occasionally at his fair listener and seemed pleased to find her apparently lost in rapture. Finally, when his stock of knowledge was exhausted, he exclaimed:

"Why, I never before knew that you were so interested in art!"

For a moment longer she continued to gaze at the paintings; then, with a tremulous sigh, she turned to him with:

Holding a Wake—Ditto a Girl.

Miss Lovleigh—The professor was telling us today about the moon. He says the moon is a dead body. Jack Spooner—That so? Then suppose we sit up awhile with the corpse.

Mother Nature surely must have set out to make "something different" the day she invented the porcupine. Here was an animal with a pathetically mild disposition, without cunning or courage and almost as slow and clumsy as a turtle. It would have been absurd to give him weapons of defense; he would never have the energy to attack anything, so he was given a coat of mail in which he might walk abroad among his enemies and yet be as safe as though he were behind a wall of steel. His upper parts, from his nose to the tip of his thick, muscular tail, are covered with a mass of sharp pointed quills intermixed with coarse hair. Each quill is provided with a number of minute barbs pointing backward, so that when it is once inserted in the flesh of any animal the mere movement of the muscles will cause it to work deeper and deeper.—Suburban Life.

Her Artistic Instinct.

The girl was a dainty thing in pink, evidently a stranger in Boston. The fellow had Harvard written all over him. They were standing in the delivery room of the public library, and he was explaining to her the decorations by Edwin Abbey which illustrate the legend of the Holy Grail. As he talked he glanced occasionally at his fair listener and seemed pleased to find her apparently lost in rapture. Finally, when his stock of knowledge was exhausted, he exclaimed:

"Why, I never before knew that you were so interested in art!"

For a moment longer she continued to gaze at the painting; then, with a tremulous sigh, she turned to him with:

Holding a Wake—Ditto a Girl.

Miss Loveleigh—The professor was telling us today about the moon. He says the moon is a dead body. Jack Spooner—That so? Then suppose we sit up awhile with the corpse.

SEABREEZE and DAYTONA BEACH, two enterprising and progressive towns on the Halifax Peninsula, are geographically one although incorporated as separate municipalities. The towns parallel the peninsula north and south for a distance of from three and one-half to four miles, and extend east and west from the surging seas of the Atlantic Ocean to the Halifax River, the beautiful tide water stream that sets them apart from Daytona with which they have close communication by means of three bridges, as well as a half-hour ferry service.

Seabreeze and Daytona Beach are essentially summer and winter resorts and are making hundreds of new friends every year among those who desire to escape the discomforting extremes of heat and cold, and their hotels and boarding houses are now receiving splendid patronage from the most discriminating class of tourists.

The ocean itself, with its marvelous beach, hard as macadam and smooth as a floor, is the greatest attraction, although earth, air and sky seem to have entered into a combination to enhance its every charm. The beach is the famous automobile race course where every world's straight-away record has been made, and all these records it continues to hold without rivalry.

The beach has a width of 300 to 500 feet and can be used from two hours after until two hours before high tide, thus giving an average of seven or eight hours for automobiling some part of each day.

Seabreeze and Daytona Beach each have a permanent population of approximately 1500. Sanitary ordinances are strictly enforced, streets and sidewalks are well kept, and new streets are being opened as fast as the increasing population demands. Besides hotels and boarding houses there is ample cottage accommodation for all winter visitors in both towns.

All the attractiveness of Seabreeze applies to Daytona Beach, the two towns being so similarly situated. The development of Daytona Beach has been fully as phenomenal as its sister on the north, and each year there is a substantial growth. The great sand dunes have been leveled and handsome homes have been built for both winter and all-year-round occupancy.

An Eccentric Bishop.

Bishop Wilson of Calcutta had as housekeeper a venerable lady who remembered the duel between Sir Philip Francis and Warren Hastings on Aug. 17, 1780. On entering the cathedral on a Sunday morning, fully robed, lawn sleeves and all, and passing the pew where the old lady sat he would pause and give her the "kiss of peace" before all the congregation, and this although he had met her at breakfast.

His sermons, too, were racy. Preaching against dishonesty, especially in horseflesh, as one of the great English failings in India, he went on, "Nor are we, servants of the altar, free from yielding to this temptation." Pointing to the occupant of the reading desk below him: "There is my dear and venerable brother, the archdeacon, down there. He is an instance of it. He once sold me a horse. It was unsound. 'I was a stranger, and he took me in.'"

World's Largest Battleship Launched at Camden Yards

WHEN the battleship Arkansas glided down the ways into the Delaware river at Camden, N. J., the world's most formidable floating fortress was put into the element in which she will live and perhaps die. Miss Mary L. Macon, the daughter of Congressman R. B. Macon, had been selected as sponsor for the new battleship. She is only sixteen years old, and so much attention made her nervous, and she held to the bottle of California champagne until the cord by which it was fastened to the platform rail pulled it from her hands. The bottle was smashed against the steel prow, and some time later Miss Macon found her voice and screamed: "I christen thee Arkansas!" The Arkansas is 554 feet long at the load water line and 562 feet long over all. Her beam is ninety-three feet two and five-eighths inches, and her trial draft will be twenty-eight feet six inches. She will carry twelve twelve-inch guns mounted in six turrets and will have twenty-one five-inch rapid fire guns, two small guns and two submerged torpedo tubes. Twelve boilers will supply steam to two engines, which will furnish 28,000 horsepower, which will give the vessel a speed of twenty and one-half knots an hour. The Arkansas will need eighty-five officers and 1,020 men when serving as a flagship.

OPPORTUNITY.

A man must train himself for his opportunity, for a great occasion is worth to a man exactly what his antecedents have enabled him to make of it.—Mathews.

"THE NEW MAGDALENE" TO COME HERE MONDAY.

A dramatization of the famous book Willie Collins will be presented at the New Daytona theatre next Monday evening. This startling stands among the first of the novels taken from all that is best in English literature.

The star in a Daytona favorite who has been specially engaged for the Collins role. She is an actress of wide experience and needs no introduction to the Daytona theater goers, and her temperament and magnetic personality fit her admirably for the portrayal of Wilkie Collins' famous heroine.

The story is the struggle of a woman for the betterment of mankind and the scene of the first act is laid in South Africa during the recent Boer war. The second act is the old St. Johns mission, which is at East End, London. The third and fourth acts are at the home of Lady Clarering at her palatial London residence.

KINGSTON.

KINGSTON, Jan., 28 — Mr. and Mrs. H. T. McClellan and G. W. Kirk left Monday in company with Rev. A. L. Abercrombie of the Daytona Baptist church and Mrs. Abercrombie to attend the Florida Baptist convention in DeLand, going across country in a touring car.

S. W. Rasberson, who has been at the Ferndale for some months, left last week for his home at Gainesville, expecting after a short stay to go to Ft. Lauderdale for the rest of the winter season.

A. D. Shuler returned home last week from Jacksonville, where he has been with his parents for a few days.

Why He Left.

"I tell you," said a recently returned traveler who was tired after the fashion of Mr. Richard Swivveller—"I tell you, Argentina's the place to go! Everything is dirt cheap there. Why, you can get a splendid fat turkey for 20 cents!" "Whew!" said one of the astonished bystanders. "If I'd been in your place I should have stayed there." "Would you, sir?" remarked the traveler, eying his friend meditatively. "Well, then, since you'd have stayed, probably you can tell me how I came to get the 20 cents in Argentina."—Argonaut.

Heiress to Gould Millions to Wed Englishman In February

Copyright by American Press Association.

MISS VIVIEN GOULD, the second daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George J. Gould, is to be married to Lord Decies, her English suitor, Feb. 7, according to the published announcements. The titled Englishman, who is many years older than his bride to be and only a little younger than his future father-in-law, says that such differences to ages is not regarded in England as a bar to matrimonial happiness. He met Miss Gould a little more than a year ago at the horse show in New York and at once began a rapid fire courtship. The pretty heiress was only sixteen, but she listened to the Englishman, and when the horse show last fall gave him another chance to press his suit she accepted him. Though the engagement was made public earlier the formal announcement was made by Mr. and Mrs. Gould at the daughter's "coming out" party only two or three weeks before the date set for the wedding.

Young Wasps Fried.

Young wasp grubs fried in butter dipped at first sight appear to be the most appetizing dish in the world, yet they have been pronounced delicious by those lately experimentalists who have tried them. Fed on they are upon the preserved jujubes drawn from fruits and flowers, they naturally possess a delicate flavor. Perhaps the best way to prepare them is to bake them in the comb.

An Idle Man.

One of his friends once asked Mr. Darwin's gardener about his master's health and how he had been lately. "Oh," he said, "my poor master has been very ready. I often wish he had something to do. He moves about in the garden, and I have seen him stand doing nothing before a flower for ten minutes at a time. If he only had something to do I really believe he would be better."
